To Marta Magalhaes:

Why are you getting this?

A lawsuit has been filed against you in this court under the number shown above. A copy of the complaint is attached.

This is not a summons, or an official notice from the court. It is a request that, to avoid expenses, you waive formal service of a summons by signing and returning the enclosed waiver. To avoid these expenses, you must return the signed waiver within 60 days from the date shown below, which is the date this notice was sent. Two copies of the waiver form are enclosed. You may keep the other copy.

What happens next?

If you return the signed waiver, we will file it with the court. The action will then proceed as if you had been served on the date the waiver is filed, but no summons will be served on you and you will have 90 days from the date this notice is sent (see the date below) to answer the complaint.

If you do not return the signed waiver within the time indicated, we will arrange to have the summons and complaint served on you. And we will ask the court to require you to pay the expenses of making service.

Please read the enclosed statement about the duty to avoid unnecessary expenses.

Thanks,

Kathryn Tewson, Paralegal
