ALEXANDRIA DIVISION

AMERICAN CHEMICAL SOCIETY,

Plaintiff,

v.

JOHN DOES 1-99, et al.,

Defendants.

No. 1:17-cv-00726-LMB-JFA

ORDER

For the reasons stated in open court and in the Order granting default judgment, it is hereby:

ORDERED, ADJUDGED, and DECREED that Defendant Sci-Hub, together with its officers, directors, principals, agents, servants, employees, successors and assigns, and all those in active concert or participation with them, are jointly and severally enjoined from:

a. Copying, distributing, altering, displaying, hosting, selling and/or promoting any works registered to Plaintiff ACS with the United States Copyright Office (“ACS’s Copyrighted Works”), including but not limited the works identified on Exhibit E to the First Amended Verified Complaint (“FAVC”) (attached hereto);

b. Using any copy or colorable imitation of a mark registered to Plaintiff ACS with the United States Patent and Trademark Office (the “ACS Marks”), including but not limited to the marks identified on Exhibit F to the FAVC (attached hereto), in connection with the promotion, advertisement, display, sale, offering for sale, manufacture, printing, importation, production, circulation, or distribution of any product or service, in such fashion as to relate or connect such product in any way to ACS, or to any goods sold, manufactured, sponsored, approved by, or connected with ACS; and

c. Engaging in any other activity constituting an infringement of the ACS Marks or ACS's Copyrighted Works, or constituting any damage to ACS's name, reputation, or goodwill; and it is FURTHER

ORDERED that any person or entity in active concert or participation with Defendant Sci-Hub and with notice of the injunction, including any Internet search engines, web hosting and Internet service providers, domain name registrars, and domain name registries, cease facilitating access to any or all domain names and websites through which Defendant Sci-Hub engages in unlawful access to, use, reproduction, and distribution of the ACS Marks or ACS's Copyrighted Works; and it is FURTHER ORDERED that the domain name registries and/or registrars for Defendant Sci-Hub's domain names and websites, or their technical administrators, shall place the domain names on registryHold/serverHold or such other status to render the names/sites non-resolving.

The Clerk is directed to forward copies of this Order to counsel of record and defendant Sci-Hub.
